Context

- ❖ In pursuance of the action plan set by the Department in collaboration with the Department of English and Career & Counseling Cell, GHBC, a webinar was organized under the Personality Development Programme (PDP) on the 20th April, 2022 through online mode with 100 participants.
- ❖ In this webinar, the resource person, David Lalrinsanga, one of the senior IPS officers, having vast knowledge and experience in government services shared his experiences, provided valuable information and gave insights on the various career opportunities and prospects available to the young aspirants specifically, the final year students of English and Economics.

Outcome

- ❖ Encouraging the young aspirants and giving them a fresh new perspective was the prime and centered discussion in this webinar. The questions and answers session was very productive.
 - ❖ This webinar addressed the common problems and issues that under graduate students who are about to enter into the job market may face on a regular basis.
 - ❖ The Webinar was in fact, resourceful, interesting, challenging, fruitful and informative. It offered substantial benefits to both students and faculties.
