The Department of Commerce organized a Seminar on Emerging Trends of Business in Mizoram for First Semester B.COM on 10 November 2022 in the Conference Hall, GHBC and aimed to provide practical exposure to the changing business landscape while nurturing students' presentation skills and research habits.

The Inaugural Programme commenced promptly at 12 p.m., marking the beginning of an insightful and engaging event. The seminar was conducted as a paper presentation competition for the first-semester students, allowing them to showcase their knowledge and understanding of emerging business trends in Mizoram. The event was graced by the presence of esteemed judges, faculty members, and students, making it a truly enriching experience for all participants.

Dr. Lalbiakzuali, the class in-charge, warmly welcomed the judges, faculty members, and students to the competition and shared a few encouraging words. The panel of judges comprised distinguished individuals with expertise in the field of business and commerce, including Prof. Kalyan Adak, Dr. Lalbiakzuali, and Miss Elizabeth Sailo. Their valuable insights and feedback would undoubtedly play a pivotal role in evaluating the presentations.

A total of 80 students from the first-semester B.COM course participated in the seminar, forming eight teams. Each team was led by a designated leader, who guided the group throughout the competition. The department's initiative to organize this seminar was driven by the goal of providing a practical understanding of the evolving business landscape in Mizoram and fostering a platform for students to demonstrate their presentation skills.
