

Report on Personality Development Programme

Name of the Event: Personality Development Programme

Organized by: Department of Political Science, Govt Hrangbana College

Date: 31st January 2020

Venue: Political Science Core Room

Resource Person: Father Rev Emmanuel Ralte

No of Participants: 58

- Recognizing the significance of personality development for the students, the Department of Political Science organized a Personality Development Programme for its core students with the objective of contributing to their personal and future professional growth.
- By engaging Reverend Father Emmanuel Ralte, a motivational speaker, the organizer hoped to bring unique perspectives and spiritual insights to the personality development programme for the students. With his knowledge of theology, ethics, and moral values, the students would be provided valuable guidance to facilitate their growth in character, faith, and emotional well-being.
- The personality development programme aimed to significantly contribute to character formation, ethical decision-making, and personal growth of the participants. The programme intended to equip them with essential life skills, fostering their holistic development for a successful future.

The Personality Development Programme, led by Reverend Father Emmanuel Ralte, proved to be an invaluable experience for the student-participants. With the guidance and expertise of such a resource person, the students were equipped with essential tools and techniques for personal growth and character development. The programme not only empowered the students but also inspired them to become confident individuals capable of contributing positively to society.