

Report on Students' Interaction with Civil Service, Defence Service and Banking Service Officers organized by the Alumni Association, Govt Hrangbana College

The Alumni Association of Govt Hrangbana College organized a programme on "Students' Interaction with Civil Service, Defence Service and Banking Officers which aimed at facilitating interactions between students and professionals from diverse fields. The event primarily focused on creating awareness and providing insights into the civil service, defence service, and banking service sectors. This report provides an overview of the activities and outcomes of the programme.

Event Details

Chairperson: Lalhmachhuana Zofa, President, Alumni Association, GHBC

Resource Persons: 1. Mr VL Zahawma, Sr Manager, Mizoram Rural Bank

2. Mr J Lalthafamkima, MPS, AIG

3. Lt Col Clement Lalhmingthanga, CO 20th NCC, Mizoram

4. Mr H Lianzela, MCS, Deputy Secretary, Govt of Mizoram

Date: 31st July 2018

Venue: Golden Hall, Govt Hrangbana College

Organizer: Alumni Association of Govt Hrangbana College

No of participants: 325

Objective:

- The key objective of this programme was to provide students with an opportunity to interact with professionals from civil service, defence service, and banking service sectors. It sought to broaden students' horizons by providing valuable insights into these career paths and fostering a deeper understanding of the roles and opportunities within these sectors.
- By engaging directly with professionals from these sectors, students would gain a realistic understanding of the roles, responsibilities, opportunities, challenges and rewards associated with these career paths.
- The program intended to encourage the students to explore various career options and empower them to make informed decisions about their future pursuits.

OUTCOMES

- The program featured the participation of officers from fields like civil service, defence service, and banking services. Experts from these fields shared their experiences, knowledge, and expertise, providing valuable insights into their respective roles and career trajectories.
- Students had the opportunity to engage in direct conversations with the officers. These sessions allowed for a comprehensive and meaningful exchange of information, wherein students gained a deeper understanding of the day-to-day responsibilities, challenges, and rewards associated with these professions.
- The program included dedicated sessions focusing on career guidance, where officers provided valuable advice and guidance to the students. This assistance included information about the necessary qualifications, skills, and aptitudes required for different roles within civil service, defence service, and banking services.

- To further enhance student engagement and address their queries, open question and answer sessions were conducted. Students enthusiastically participated, posing questions about the officer's personal experiences, work-life balance, and the impact of their work in society. Officers responded with transparency and shared practical advice to assist students in making informed decisions about their future careers.
- The program had a significant impact on the participating students. By engaging directly with professionals from these sectors, students gained a realistic understanding of the opportunities, challenges, and rewards associated with these career paths. The program encouraged students to explore various career options and empowered them to make informed decisions about their future pursuits.

Conclusion:

The Students Interaction Programme, organized by the Alumni Association of our college, successfully facilitated valuable interactions between students and professionals from civil service, defence service, and banking service sectors. Through panel discussions, Q&A sessions and personal interactions students gained insights, received career guidance, and established essential connections. The programme significantly contributed to students' understanding of these fields, enabling them to make informed career decisions. The Alumni Association of Govt Hrangbana College remains committed to organizing such events to support and guide students in their academic and professional journeys.