Re
Greetings from Govt. Hrangbana College!

Thank you once again for giving our students to intern in your prestigious institution. And as we come to the completion of the academic session, I humbly request that you give the appropriate evaluation and grading of their performance, which will be reflected in their final end semester examination.

In addition to the grade sheet, if you could issue an internship certificate highlighting the number of hours and the grade given, it will help to validate their internship experience.

I once again express my sincere gratitude and look forward to many more collaborations in the future.
